FACTS ABOUT THE QUEEN.

"NOT RECOGNISED" AS A MARRIED WOMAN.

M. A. P., which has lately published some little known facts about the Queen, remarks: An erroneous idea prevails that Queen Alexandra as the Queen Consort possesses much the same rights as the late Queen Victoria.

But the difference between being head of the State and merely the Consort is very great, and the privileges of both positions are very clearly defined. In this respect Queen Alexandra comes off better than any previous Consort, but she is nevertheless barred from many of the rights which the King is able to claim.

By the laws of the Constitution the Queen Consort is virtually the King's subject, and not his equal. As is well known, it is impossible for anyone to bring a legal action against the King; but as the Queen Consort is recognised as a "public person," any action brought against her by the humblest subject of the land would have to be tried in the civil courts, and she would be compelled to abide by the verdict.

But the Queen Consort may also bring an action against anyone, and her position entitles her to deal in any business, or open a shop, if she chooses, and transact business with customers in the ordinary way, the only stipulation being that against her signature on any document must be added the words, "Queen of England."

One of the most curious points about Queen Alexandra's position is that she is not recognised in law as a married woman. A law was passed in Georgian times to this effect, because it was found that the King had so many affairs of his own to attend to that he could not be troubled with those of his wife.

Accordingly to-day the Queen is the only woman in the country who is not amenable to the "Married Woman's Property Act," and whatever debts she might incur she alone would be responsible for them, and creditors would have no claim whatever upon the King. This law seems ambiguous when it is remembered that the King cannot be sued in a court of law, but so it remains. Queen Alexandra is therefore represented in the Courts by her own Attorney-General and Solicitor-General. This, however, has not always been the case. In former times the Queen Consort's debts were the King's and no one could legally recover them, but then financial affairs were managed differently. Her husband was paid so much a year by the State and he allowed her whatever she liked to spend. As often as not he allowed her nothing at all, with the result that the Consort was compelled to contract debts which could not be recovered, and so became unpopular. William IV., however, altered all that. He allowed his Consort one-tenth share of all money derived by the grant of a franchise, and the same amount from the revenue of the Crown lands, and this pocket-money, which ran into a large sum every year, was called Queen's Money. It was not until William IV. came to the throne, that Queen's Money was done away with, and the present excellent system of providing the Queen Consort with a separate grant from the State came into force. So it comes about that Queen Alexandra has her own officers to look after her affairs, and all her accounts are kept quite separate from those of the King, whilst all outstanding bills in her name are usually settled once a month by cheque.

RICH AND POOR.

ALL CLASSES OF SOCIETY VALUE
DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

The one medicine that in every grade of society is valued above all others is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They cure rich and poor of all ailments that arise from weak or vitiated blood, such as anaemia, skin disorders, indigestion, and general weakness. Diseases that result from impoverished blood rob life of its pleasures for the rich, and make existence doubly hard for the poor.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give new good blood with every dose; they tone the nerves, impart strength, appetite, a healthy colour, and a good digestion.

For several years a worker in the barrel-making industry, Mrs. Annie Milligan, of 33, Scoresby-street, Chesterfield, England, has had to face heavy misfortunes.

She was never strong at the best, but as the result of my work, and through bloodlessness, I was subject to severe colds, especially in the winter. I suffered from indigestion and bronchitis, and eventually I feared I should never be able to work again. But there was a great change when I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had heard them praised, and am glad that I tried them, for they cured me, and there are no traces of my ailments now; in fact, I can do harder work than before.

Mrs. Etta Lavarette, of Elswick, Newcastle, states: "I have consulted many doctors, who diagnosed my case as anaemia and nervous debility. Medicine seemed to be useless for my case. Fainting fits seized me frequently; severe headaches prostrated me, and I could not bear the slightest noise. Then I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and a gradual change came over me. I could take exercise without fatigue; headaches and dizziness ceased. Now, I feel quite strong, and have no anxieties about my health."

For the worker, and the wealthy Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are invaluable, for they have cured in thousands of cases anaemia, indigestion, eczema, consumption, bile, kidney disease, rheumatism, sciatica, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, and the ills that afflict the weaker sex. Sold by medicine dealers all over the world; or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Holborn-viaduct, London, at 2s. 9d. one bottle, or 13s. 9d. for six, post free.

HONGKONG, MONDAY, APRIL 2, 1906.

THE SUGAR MARKET.

On Friday Reuter transmitted a most important message to the Colony which is not without considerable interest to all those interested in one of the staple industries of Hongkong. Mr. Scott's motion in the House of Commons that Great Britain withdraw from the Sugar Convention was withdrawn upon the statement of Mr. Lloyd George that, though the convention had not achieved the anticipated results, a withdrawal at the present time would embarrass Great Britain. It has been the reiterated opinion in the Colony that the operation of the Convention to which Hongkong with the mother country adheres has brought about results beneficial to the sugar refining business which could never have been possible when beet sugar found its way in increasing quantities to the markets of the East from the bounty-granting countries in Europe. In the interest, therefore, of the protection of the colonial industry it is greatly to be hoped that Great Britain's adherence to the compact against the bounty-giving States will be long continued. In connection with the speech from the Chairman at the recent meeting of the China Sugar Refining Co. with special reference to the recession of prices which has taken place upon nearly all European sugar markets, it may serve some useful purpose to scan over the review of the world's sugar market as presented in the journal devoted to the sugar industry. We are told that sellers obtained the upper hand and they were supported on the one hand by the fact that the fears of insufficient increase in consumption were stimulated by reports from numerous sources and on the other hand by reports that the decrease of acreage in the best-growing districts of the old world would not be nearly so large as it was hoped and anticipated. There was also a noticeable decrease of buying orders from the Orient, which had been taking rather large consignments of granulated and caused quite an activity in the English markets. Cheaper prices, however, did not cause any perceptible buying over the usual amounts, and it looked as if the consumers expected a still further decline. In view of the altogether erratic complexion of the market during the past few months, it cannot be said whether this expectation will be realized or not. Still some effects of the decline ought to have been discounted, because the first two months of the year are, according to the experiences of many years, the least satisfactory in the sugar trade. The current beet crops have been disposed of, no surprises in this direction are possible, and so far as the acreage for the next campaign is concerned, reliable estimates cannot be made before spring. This causes, naturally, either a cessation or suspension of speculative operations. This attitude of the speculative element is so much the more pronounced this year because the admittedly immense world's production on the one and the low prices on the other hand scarcely admit of any advantageous conjunctions in either direction. Even if the acreage should really decrease a few per cent and the crops should take a fairly normal course, the tendency may be downward rather than upward. It is probably a fortunate circumstance, remarks the Sugar Gazette, that the decline should have set in now, because this will result in lower offerings for beets in the next campaign, and this in turn will have some influence upon the acreage. The fact that the first estimates of the European beet crop have been materially exceeded, and that the production may reach 7,000,000 tons, seems to have come to the comprehension of speculation only very gradually, but its effect is for this reason apparently so much the more marked.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE closing ceremony of the Japanese Diet took place on 28th ult.

OVER 200,000 yen has been received already from the United States for the Japanese Famine Relief Fund.

A COMPROMISE has been arrived at in regard to the new Japanese Tariff at the joint conference of the two Houses.

THE number of vessels constructed at the Mitsui Bishi Dockyard and Engine Works, Nagasaki, during 1905 was 14, of 13,089 tons.

INSPECTOR Macdonald placed six coolies before Mr. F. A. Hazeland this morning on a charge of street gambling, at Yaumati yesterday. They admitted the charge and were fined $3 each.

THE woman and two fillets who were arrested some days ago, for cutting a water-pipe, as she thought the people living above her were using too much water, were this afternoon fined $50 and $5 each, respectively.

THE junk which was sunk by the U.S. collier Alexander on the 28th ult., near the eastern end of the Rambler Shoal, is being successfully raised, and the Fairway is expected to be clear of the obstruction by to-night.

THE Japanese Volunteer Fleet Association has decided to order from the Kawasaki Dockyard, Kobe, a steamer of 3,000 tons. When completed the vessel will be placed on the Osaka Shosen Kaisha's Formosan service.

FOR stealing two lead pencils and thirteen envelopes on the 1st instant, the property of the Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co., a coolie was this morning sentenced by Mr. F. A. Hazeland, at the Magistracy, to one week's hard labour.

MEHEUX Juli, quartermaster, Mousquet, and Come Claude, fireman, Montcalm, were charged this morning before Mr. F. A. Hazeland at the Police Court, for behaving in a disorderly manner while drunk in Connaught Road Central last night. They were fined $3 each.

GEORG Rosch, butcher, s.s. Prinz Waldemar, charged Ho Wong, a butcher's assistant on the ship, for stealing, last evening, one tin box, valued at 30 marks, and 633 marks in money, the property of the complainant. The charge was proved and the defendant sentenced to six weeks' hard labour.

"If they swept it into the sea, it would only be wasted, so I swept it up," said a sampan woman at the Magistracy this morning. She was charged with being in possession of a quantity of flour and being unable to give a satisfactory explanation as to how she procured it. Mr. Hazeland, in fining her $3, remarked that the flour was too clean to be 'cal'ed sweepings.

THE Chinese Travelling Commissioners have telegraphed that, when the Chinese Minister was received in audience by the Kaiser, His Majesty advised him that every country, but especially China, should have an army and navy sufficiently strong to meet any emergency. The Kaiser also expressed the opinion that there is no necessity for China to introduce any other country's administration.

MANY of our readers, says the N. C. D. News, have doubtless experienced difficulty for some time past in obtaining bank notes for their requirements, and have had to accept the more cumbersome silver Mexican. They, and the public generally, will probably be interested to learn that the International Banking Corporation are now issuing notes for $5, $10, and $100, Shanghai currency, and the above inconvenience will thus be greatly relieved.

THE gunboat Thistle was commissioned at Devonport on 27th Feb. for special service on the China Station by Lieutenant R. M. R. West. The Thistle was launched in 1898, and she has served commissions on the Cape, West African, and South Atlantic Stations. She carries a crew of 70 all told, including six officers. Her armament consists of two 4-inch quick-firing guns, four 12-pounders, and maxims, and her 1,300 h.p. engines give her a speed of 13½ knots per hour.

SIR Edward Sassoon was entertained at a dinner, on 27th Feb., in celebration of his return as the Conservative member for Hythe, the Royal Pavilion Hotel, Folkestone, being the place of meeting. Alderman Penfold, Mayor of Folkestone, presided over a company of more than 400. The Earl of Radnor proposed "Our Member," saying it was a great satisfaction to local Unionists to think that Folkestone had not been taken in by the "terminological inexactitudes" concerning Chinese labour and other matters which flew about so freely during the recent election campaign. The toast was received with great enthusiasm, and Sir Edward Sassoon, returning thanks, alluded to the question of Asiatic labour in the Transvaal, observing that no fewer than 18,000 white men were finding work mainly in consequence of the presence of Chinese coolies.

WONG Yuen, a sub-contractor, 25, Station Street, Yau-ma-tei, stepped into the witness-box, at the Police Court this morning, with his left eye in deep mourning, to charge one Yuen Fat with assault. The defendant, it appeared, owed the complainant $3.40 for house-rent. The complainant called on defendant on several occasions for the money, but could not recover it. On Saturday afternoon complainant again visited defendant. This time defendant was ready and as soon as the complainant entered, the accused and others fell on to the sub-contractor and thrashed him, the defendant using a fighting-iron. When asked what he had to say, the defendant replied: "That man came to my house to steal." "And what about the knuckle-duster you were using?" asked Mr. Hazeland. "Oh I found that in the complainant's pocket," replied the defendant. The case was remanded.

THE following is the return of visitors to the City Hall Library and Museum for the week ending 25th March:—Library—Non-Chinese, 268; Chinese, 113; total, 381. Museum—Non-Chinese, 286; Chinese, 288; total, 574.

THE Amateur Dramatic Club on Saturday gave a performance of "Lady Huntworth's Experiment," before a fairly full house. His Excellency the Governor, with a party of guests, was present, as well as a number of French officers. The play went very well.

A DEATH-BED will, consisting of three words only, and written on an envelope, was held by the President of the Probate Court to be perfectly valid. The widow of the testator inherits the whole estate, valued at £8,000. The document ran:—"All to mother.—C. T."

THE Governor of Honan has wired to the Waiwupu and the Shanghai, proposing the opening of the three places, Cheng Chou, Lo Yang and Chu Ma-tien, to international trade, and will memorialize the Throne after he has received the approval of the said Boards to his proposal.—Shanghai Times.

THE No. 1 "boy" of the Club Lusitano was charged this afternoon, at the Police Court, before Mr. C. A. D. Melbourne, for being in possession of 4 tins of 2 mace of prepared opium and 5 mace of opium dross, without the required permit. Chief Excise Officer Hoggarth prosecuted and Mr. E. J. Grist, of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist, defended. Evidence was heard. Mr. Grist said that recently the defendant discharged a cook in the Club. It was presumed that the cook gave the information to get defendant into trouble. His Worship fined the defendant $72.50.

OF late Jardine's Sugar Refinery at East Point have been losing quite a lot of leather belting from their machine rooms, and although strict watches have been kept they failed to find the thief. In fact, notwithstanding the watches kept, the belting continued to disappear. Recently, two men were taken off their ordinary duties and stationed in the machine rooms, with the object of seeing that none of the Company's belting was removed from the premises. On Saturday afternoon suspicions were aroused, and after work, when the men were passing out, the two watchmen were searched. On each man was found small pieces of belting lashed round their legs. They were immediately charged. At the Magistracy this morning, the defendants were sentenced to one week's hard labour each.

THE new Blue funnel liner Teucer has loaded for the Far East, and sailed on her maiden voyage on March 1st. She is one of five similar steamers ordered by the Ocean Steamship Company, and is practically a sister-ship to the Bellerophon, of which vessel we recently gave some description. The chief feature is that in these steamers masts have been entirely dispensed with, their place being taken by four pillars, arranged in pairs, fore and aft, to act as crane posts for derricks. Her appliances permit of her handling weights up to 36 tons. The two forward pillars are joined by a look-out bridge, eighty feet above the water line. The Teucer, which has been built by Messrs. Hawthorn, Leslie and Co., of Hebburn-on-Tyne, is fitted with twin screws, and is 432ft. long, 58ft. in beam, and 42ft. 6in. deep, of 9,000 tons, and with a deadweight capacity of about 13,000 tons.—L. & C. Express.

IN noticing the Calendar for 1906 of the College of Medicine for Chinese at Hongkong the Journal of Tropical Medicine expresses the wish that the meaning and importance of this College could be brought home to British folk, so that we would have in Hongkong a teaching University of the first rank. Instead of turning to Japan, where German is the scientific language of the class-room, the Chinese would turn to an institution where the foreign language they are best acquainted with—namely, English—is the medium of instruction. The prestige accruing to Britain and British medicine, were this fulfilled, must surely be apparent to all, however narrow their imperialism; and it only wants one Governor of the Colony of Hongkong to take the matter in hand and appeal to the patriotism of the nation to develop a scheme of superlative importance to the welfare of China, and to the pre-eminence of Britain in the China Seas.

HONGKONG SCHOOLS FOOTBALL SHIELD.

DIOCESAN SCHOOL THE WINNERS.

The Diocesan School boys, and the football team in particular, were in great glee on Saturday afternoon when they won the Schools Football Shield. The presentation took place on the Hongkong Football ground, kindly lent for the occasion, Mr. W. H. Williams, the hon. secretary of the League, said that the Diocesan boys were the first to have their names inscribed on the shield. They had secured 23 points out of a possible 24, and scored 50 goals to their credit with one goal only scored against them. The best team had undoubtedly won on its merits, and the Diocesan boys, though keen on winning and supported by their enthusiastic masters, had never forgotten to play the game in the right spirit. With regard to the rest of the schools the play during the last three months showed a distinct improvement and a levelling up to the standard of the winners, so that next season a still keener and more even competition might be anticipated. Dr. G. H. Bateson-Wright, who made the presentation, complimented the Diocesan School footballers on their victory, and remarked that previous to the inauguration of this Schools League, games of football had been played in a more or less desultory fashion; now they had a programme for the season and schoolboys benefited in more ways than one, a result for which they had to thank Mr. Williams, the hon. sec. of the League.

At the conclusion of the presentation, cheers were given, after which the shield-bearers played a team representing "The Rest of the League." The match resulted in a draw of two goals all.

ALLEGED MANSLAUGHTER.

INDIAN WATCHMAN CHARGED.

At the Magistracy this afternoon, before Mr. C. A. D. Melbourne, Horbij Rai, an Indian watchman employed at the Quarry Bay shipyard, was brought up on remand charged with the manslaughter of one Ng King, a coolie, at Quarry Bay, on March 26th last.

Mr. F. B. Deacon, of Messrs. Deacon, Baker and Deacon, prosecuted. Mr. H. J. Gattiner, in the office of Mr. O. D. Thomson, defended, while Mr. R. F. C. Master watched the case on behalf of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire.

Dr. William Hunter, medical official in charge of the public mortuary, said that on 27th ult., he made a post-mortem examination on a male Chinaman, that was brought to him from Quarry Bay. The deceased died from a badly ruptured spleen. In witness's opinion the rupture might have been caused by a blow or a kick.

Criss-examined: A fall would cause a spleen to rupture. There were no external signs of violence on the deceased. The spleen of the deceased was four times its normal size.

Hui On, foreman, Quarry Bay, said that about 9 a.m. on the 26th ult., the deceased was placing together some pieces of wood in a match at Quarry Bay. Witness saw the No. 1 watchman (defendant) passing. When defendant arrived at the match he already mentioned he looked in. At the same time the deceased asked: "What are you looking in here for?" The defendant entered saying, "Why do you scold me?" and slapped the deceased man's face. Defendant then seized the deceased by the right shoulder and kicked him on the right side. The deceased then tried to run away but was again seized and kicked twice about the stomach. Witness then said to the defendant: "That will do. Do not strike him again. Go away." The defendant left. A few minutes later the deceased started to vomit. He gradually grew worse, became unconscious and fifteen minutes afterwards died.

Further evidence was called to corroborate the last witness's statement.

The case was proceeding when our reporter left the Court.

CORINTHIAN YACHT CLUB.

SUNDAY'S RACING.

The weather conditions during the past week did not look very promising for the competitors in the yacht race set to take place yesterday, by members of the Corinthian Yacht Club, for the cup presented by Mr. E. F. Gibbo, but that fickle jade, Weather, twin sister of Fortune, was for once propitious, and the elements were all that could have been desired. Precisely at noon the starting signal was given, and seven yachts set off in the competition, to course being from the Police Pier to the North Fairway, starboard, thence to Aroo Rock, starboard, and so home. There was fair breeze, but not quite as much as might have been desired, but in the result the race proved a fairly good one, and was finally won by Gael, splendidly steered to victory by Mr. M. McIver.

The Cup, a very handsome silver trophy, a carved blackwood stand, was subsequently presented to the fortunate winner, by Mr. Hands, at the request of Mr. E. F. Gibbo (who was overcome by an unusual fit of bashfulness), and the presentation was acknowledged by Mr. McIver in a few appropriate words.

The yachts competing were:—
Gael, M. McIver..... 1
Hibernia, W. J. Wilkerson..... 2
Nina, E. M. Hazeland..... 3
Cam, J. Henderson..... 4
Ashore, R. W. Ritchell..... 5
Antirrhina, Captain Casey..... 6
Thetis, W. A. Crane..... 7

THE DISBANDING OF THE FIRST CHINESE REGIMENT.

The disbanding of the Chinese Regiment Wei-hai-wei, and the withdrawal of what other troops there are, are, of course, in accordance with the decision that was arrived at make Wei-hai-wei exclusively a naval station and need not be regarded as in any way a step towards the abandonment of the port. The Wei-hai-wei Regiment has served its turn. It has shown what can be done with the Chinese peasant to make him a soldier; but it was never likely to see active service again, and its usefulness has ended, and its disbandment was inevitable. It passes in Ewigkeit with a splendid record, and its officers will return to their original regiments with a feeling of pride as well as regret, for it has been a model regiment in every sense, and many Londoners will recollect with admiration how they enjoyed seeing the Chinese soldiers who went home for the Coronation, marching about in St. James' Park with all the smartness and swagger of the Guards with whom they were quartered.

Our correspondent "F" shows, in a letter which we publish this morning that, what certainly a disappointment to Wei-hai-wei may be turned greatly to the advantage of Shanghai. The disbanded men of the First Chinese Regiment would make excellent material for our police force. The Shanghai peasant is far fiercer man, physically and morally, than the Kiangsu coolie; he is accustomed to go abroad to earn his livelihood, and there he always been a bond between the peoples of Shanghai and Shanghai, due to the extensive junk traffic that has existed between them for centuries. These men have been well drilled under English officers and their character and courage tried; and in many ways they would be better and more acceptable police than the Sikhs. Probably the idea has already suggested itself to the Council; and we trust an endeavour will be made to enlist as many of these native warriors as possible. They will be much more welcome to the Chinese than the Sikhs, who are to be shortly introduced to augment the force, will be.—N. C. D. News.

Manchuria for the Manchus.

Peking, 27th March.

The gentry of Heilungkiang and Kirin provinces have held a meeting and decided that the railway, mining, timber-felling, and other enterprises in these provinces shall be exploited by local capital. They communicated this decision to the Waiwupu and the Shanghai on the 25th inst., and have also sent delegations to Peking.

The Suspended Negotiations.

Peking, 28th March.

The Russo-Chinese negotiations are still suspended. The Waiwupu has frequently urged the Russia Minister to resume them, but Mr. Pokotiloff continues to postpone them on the plea of his sickness. It is believed, however, that he is intentionally postponing the meetings, while the Russian military authorities are dispatching parties to explore for mines in Manchuria.

The Railway Nationalisation Bill.

A CLOSURE WITH EMPHASIS.

Tokio, 29th March.

The House of Peers referred the revised Railway Nationalisation Bill back to the House of Representatives where an unprecedented scene ensued in consequence of a motion by the Seiyu-kai to divide without further debate, all discussion being already exhausted. The opponents of the measure, despairing of success, retired, and the Bill was thus adopted by an absolute majority of the House.

Little Boy—I commenced when I was nine years old.
Mr. Hazeland—Well, what do you know of this matter?
Little Boy—Nothing.
Mr. Hazeland—But didn't you tell the inspector on duty that you saw the defendants taking away the opium pipes?
Little Boy—No!

The Trouble in Natal.

Lord Elgin and Mr. Winston Churchill, questioned in the House of Commons, declared that no information had been received concerning the resignation of the Natal Ministry, beyond what had appeared in the press telegrams.

They justified the suspension of the executions in view of a possible demand for British troops to suppress a native rising.

Later.

Lord Elgin has read a despatch from the Governor of Natal, to which he had replied, that he, in the light of information furnished, recognised that the decision in this grave matter, rested with Natal.

The Governor's despatch detailed the circumstances of the court-martial and the resignation of the Ministry and concluded with a trust that His Lordship would now withdraw the suspension, which was exciting an intense feeling.

Lord Elgin's reply said that he never intended to interfere with the action of a responsible government; but, in view of the presence of British troops in the colony, he was bound to obtain full information on such a matter, which information he regretted that the Governor had not supplied earlier.

LONDON, 31st March.

Indignation meetings have been held in Durban and Pietermaritzburg, which were thronged. Resolutions were passed determining not to tolerate any meddling in the domestic affairs of the colony.

SUIT FOR MONEY LENT.

"IT WAS A GAMBLING DEBT."

In Summary Jurisdiction this morning, before his Honour Mr. A. G. Wise, Puisne Judge, Li Kam Leung sued Li Kam Chau, to recover the sum of $712.53, being the amount of principal and interest for a sum of money lent by the plaintiff to the defendant.

Mr. Otto Kong Sing appeared for the plaintiff, the defendant appearing in person.

Mr. Otto Kong Sing said this was a claim for money due under two Chinese documents, signed by the defendant, and showing that the sum claimed was due by him to the plaintiff. He produced those documents, which were in effect promissory notes.

Defendant said he was a student, living with his father. He admitted signing the documents now before the Court, but said the debt was not due for money lent but on a gambling transaction.

His Honour: Chi where have you been picking up the law? Did you learn it in a solicitor's office?

Defendant: No, my Lord, I have not studied the law.

His Honour: Well, you have admitted signing those notes, so there must be judgment for plaintiff with costs. I hope this will be a lesson to you, and that your father will give you another when you go home.

THE FORMOSA EARTHQUAKE.

FURTHER DETAILS.

Official returns which have been compiled of the extent of the damage resulting from the earthquake in Kagi Prefecture, Formosa, show that up to the 20th instant 1,058 persons were killed, and 1,375 injured, while 2,677 houses were completely thrown down, and 1,742 were seriously damaged. The number of injured persons given represents only the most severe cases, those who have received minor injuries being innumerable. On the 19th ult., the ground adjacent to the road from Baishukoso to Kinsan—for a distance of about two miles—subsided three feet. An immense fissure in the earth has appeared in the vicinity of Getsuhan, near Shinko, sand and mud being ejected therefrom.

A Taichung dispatch to the Asahi dated the 19th instant states that the extent of the damage increases as the work of investigation is being carried on. According to this estimate 3,000 houses have totally collapsed, and 17,800 have been partially thrown down. The loss of life is given as 10,100, with 1,000 persons injured. Earthquake shocks are still being experienced at intervals, and the scene in the devastated district—with the terror-stricken inhabitants cramped out-doors in the rain—is intensely pathetic. Parents are running from place to place to a frenzied search for their children, who are seen bitterly crying for their parents. All the houses available are filled with injured people, who are receiving all the attention possible, the Government having ordered the doctors and surgeons of various parts to proceed to the scene of the disaster.

A dispatch dated two days later than the preceding states that the shocks continue, and that the whole population of Kagi, native and Japanese alike, is encamped in the streets. All the houses—with the exception of the Japanese—are quite unfit for habitation, and three-quarters of the whole city must be entirely rebuilt. In Dayo, Shinko, Baishiko, Taihorin, and neighbourhoods practically every house collapsed. Japanese soldiers rendered great assistance on the day of the disaster in removing dead and injured persons from the ruins, conveying the injured to the hospitals and medical stations, thus earning the gratitude of the natives.

The centre of the shock, according to the Osaka Mainichi report, was in the vicinity of Gehaitan, in the Shinko district. At this place countless fissures have appeared in the earth's surface, greyish mud and water being emitted, and about a quarter of a mile square of land has subsided, the surface being now covered with lava. This message gives the estimated number of houses destroyed as 4,000. Professor Omori of the Tokyo Imperial University, has been ordered to proceed to Formosa to investigate and report upon the effect of the recent earthquake, and is expected to leave Japan by steamer from Kobe on the 25th instant.

In the authority of Professor Omori, vernacular contemporaries publish some interesting information relative to earthquakes. Such destructive phenomena are not uncommon to Formosa, says the professor; from the middle of the seventeenth century to the present day—about 250 years—no fewer than seventeen similar disasters have been recorded. Of this total, twelve have occurred in the plain at the foot of the Island—from Kagi to Taipei—and the remainder in the extreme north of the island, in the neighbourhood of Tamsui, Keelung, and Giran. The recent earthquake appears to be identical in character to those experienced in April and November, 1901. Of the first the first extended about 82 miles from Tokugai in the north to Banhsyoh in the south, and the second extended about 35 miles, from Tokugai to Shinsheih.

The shocks experienced in Formosa are no so severe as the immense destruction of life and property indicate. The houses in Formosa are built of very coarse clay bricks, and quickly collapse if subjected to strong shock. This fact is demonstrated by the greater damage being sustained by native houses as compared with those built in Japanese style. Had this recent earthquake occurred in Japan, concludes this authority, the damage would probably have been confined to the collapse of a few tall chimneys.

OFFICIAL RETURNS OF LOSSES.

Official returns made up to the 10th ult., show the damages caused by the earthquake in Formosa to be as follows:—

Killed	496 men
Wounded	613 women
Everely injured	313 men
Slightly injured	402 women
Houses totally destroyed	3,831
Houses partially destroyed	2,121

THE PRESS AND PUBLIC FUNCTIONS.

Recent issue of the Japan Herald published the editorial columns a strongly worded complaint of the action of the Yokohama Reception Committee in ignoring the press in regard to the British functions in connection with Prince Arthur's visit. It appears that the editor of the Yokohama Contemporary wrote to the secretary of the committee prior to the Prince's arrival, asking for tickets to the enclosure provided for British residents. The reply received was the effect that no tickets were being issued to the Press, but that cards of admission would be issued to members of the staff if applied for individually. "Such an application," the contemporary writes, "was made, and representatives of the Herald, as well as other journalists, had to jostle with the crowd in order to obtain various details. One journalist in Yokohama, on asking for special Press tickets, was informed that the committee did not deem it necessary to issue special tickets to the Press."

The case of the luncheon at the Oriental Hotel on invitations were sent to the newspapers, with the result that three out of four local journals contained no report of the proceedings, although it appears that the committee endeavoured to secure the insertion of official account, which the Japan Herald very properly, under the circumstances—declined to insert. Our Yokohama contemporary pretends to take the Japan Gazette severely to task for publishing a lengthy description of the luncheon in spite of the official boycott. Koh Herald.

THE SHANGHAI AND HONGKONG WHARF CO., LD.

The annual general meeting of the shareholders in the Shanghai and Hongkong Wharf Co., Ltd., was held at the offices of the general agents at Shanghai on 26th ult. Mr. W. J. Gresson, was in the chair and in moving the adoption of the report, which was carried, said,—"Gentlemen,—With your approval I propose to take the report and accounts as read. The year under review has been the most prosperous the Company has yet enjoyed, the godowns have been filled with cargo and our storage accommodation has not only been taxed to the utmost, but, to our great regret, we have had to turn business away for want of space. I would here remind you, gentlemen, that our past experience has been that a year of plenty is followed by a year or more of leaness, and it would almost appear impossible, even making every allowance for increased requirements supplied from the distributing centre, and the undoubted expanding trade of the place, that the volume of the merchandise imported in 1905 can be maintained throughout the year 1906. With these facts before them it has been a difficult matter for your directors to determine what would be a safe sum to expend on increased godown accommodation, and after mature consideration, a building programme has been sanctioned, entailing an expenditure of close on five lacs of taels. To provide the necessary funds the general agents trust that there will be a renewed demand for debentures of the Company, and in the meantime they have agreed to advance the money as required. In September last Shanghai had the misfortune to be visited by a typhoon, and, due to a combination of causes, the water in the river rose to an unprecedented extent, flooding not only the godowns along the bank but also those in the heart of the Settlement. Your property suffered considerable damage, and to our great regret the contents of many godowns were also destroyed, causing loss to our constituents. To, as far as in our power, obviate the recurrence of a similar loss, we are having, as opportunity allows, the floors of all godowns raised to a level considerably over that recorded in September last at the various wharves. Turning to the accounts, the balance of working account for the year is Tls. 638,685.49, an increase of Tls. 234,193.35 over that of the year 1902 which previously constituted a record of the Company. But while our earnings show a satisfactory expansion, our expenditure grows even more rapidly; during the last few years taxes have been more than quadrupled, wages have more than doubled and new buildings cost more—properly account has been increased by Tls. 115,526.82 for additions during the year.—Repairs Account. We started 1905 with Tls. 59,000 at credit of this account, and this sum has been reduced during the year to Tls. 734.03. The principal item of expenditure has been the renewal of over 600 feet of Pootung wharf. A certain amount has been expended in the raising of floors of godowns above flood level; we estimate that an additional Tls. 50,000 will be required to be spent to complete this work and we have further to make provision for our annual repairs. This, gentlemen, explains why we ask you to place to the credit of this account Tls. 100,000 and I trust you will approve our recommendation. Building Reserve.—Our auditors drew attention to the name of this account which they consider misleading, as the cost of new buildings cannot properly be charged to it; we therefore propose with your sanction, that for the future it appear in the balance sheet as reserve fund. No provision has been made in the accounts for a bonus to the foreign staff, as in our opinion such a recommendation would come better from shareholders and if made I shall have pleasure in placing it before the meeting. There are no other points, gentlemen, to which I can usefully draw your attention.

THE NANCHANG MASSACRE.

The N. C. D. News, of the 29th ult., says:—We have already expressed a decided opinion, based on all the evidence that had come to our knowledge, that the magistrate Chiang at Nanchang committed suicide, and that no one in the Roman Catholic Mission had any hand in his death. We know now on the highest authority that this opinion is confirmed by the post-mortem examination, which has left no doubt that it was a case of deliberate suicide. We printed, on the 19th inst., the following extract from the "Nanchangpao," which that paper published as a dispatch received from Peking:—

"Acting on telegraphic information received from the Governor of Kiangsi, which stated that, after a post-mortem examination, the British Consul and the English doctor certified that the wounds of magistrate Chiang were not self-inflicted, the Waiwupu has addressed a note to all the Foreign Ministers at Peking stating that the cause of the recent tragedy was really due to the missionary Lacruche and that on this account, China, besides inflicting proper punishment on the culprits, will entertain no other demands of France of whatever character. On receipt of this note, all the different Ministers-blamed France in the matter."

This so-called dispatch is, we learn from a thoroughly trustworthy letter from Peking, a tissue of lies. The result of the post-mortem was that the wounds of Chiang were self-inflicted; the insertion of "not" is a brazen falsehood. So is the story of the Waiwupu addressing a note to all the Foreign Ministers, etc., etc. So is the statement that all the Foreign Ministers blamed France in the matter. No one could think that when we reprinted the "Nanchangpao's" dispatches we endorsed them in any way; we merely reported them that our readers might know the version that was being circulated to excite an anti-foreign feeling in the Chinese.

THEIR Majesties, the Emperor and Empress of Japan are contributing ten thousand yen to the relief of the sufferers by the earthquake in Formosa.

DROWNING FATALITY.

AT TOLO HARBOUR.

A sad drowning fatality occurred in Tolo Harbour, near Taipo, after five o'clock last evening and it resulted in the death of a stoker on board police pinnace No. 3. How the fatality occurred no one on board can say, but the Europeans were suddenly startled by an alarm given by the cook of "Stop launch, man overboard." At the time the alarm was given the pinnace was going at full speed, but a boat was soon launched and they made for the place where the unfortunate stoker was last seen. They could not get there in time and the stoker sank when the rescuing boat was about 100 ft. away. It is, however, surmised that deceased, who went to the stern of the pinnace on some business, must have lost his balance and dropped overboard. The pinnace cruised around the scene for about half-an-hour, but nothing more of the stoker was seen. The launch then steamed to Hongkong.

ENTERTAINMENT TO THE FLEETS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."—Sir,—I beg to enclose copy of a letter received from the French Admiral. It speaks for itself, and I publish it with his permission. The Committee who were responsible for the various entertainments to the Japanese and French fleets beg to thank all those gentlemen who so kindly assisted them. Their special thanks are due to those naval officers who so kindly undertook the whole organization of the sports on Saturday, 31st March: Commander Leatham, Lieut. Dickens, and Mr. Lane-Pool, R. M. A.

The Committee also gratefully acknowledge the help given them by the military authorities in lending so much gear—in the shape of forms and tables, etc.—to say nothing of mules and many other things.

Those to whom we owe accounts will oblige by sending them in at once, as I leave Hongkong this week.—Yours, etc.,

G. STEWART,
Hon. Secretary, Provisional Committee.
